

Our Mission and Purpose

Our mission is to offer unique, quality, name brand footwear at competitive prices. Our selection of our key brands is second to none. We are constantly thinking outside the box by not only providing all the newest trends and favourite classics in footwear but also creating new footwear trends.

We give more to our customers by knowing each brand we carry inside and out – if you have a question, we have the answer. We not only know our brands, we know our customers, addressing them by name. Our staff and our exclusive products are as unique as the city we live in. It's not just a shoe, it's a statement.

Our Vision and Direction

To be the nation's premiere footwear outlet, constantly supplying the latest trends in footwear in our ever changing world. We aim to maintain a steady growth by providing all major cities with an unlimited variety of stylish kicks.

Customer

Getoutside staff act with integrity knowing they can answer any question on our many footwear brands. Employees appreciate our customers' business and address them by name. Here at Getoutside, we offer unique shoes as well as unique service.

Staff

At Getoutside we work as a team representing the spirit of the city we live in and love. We provide a respectful and inclusive environment where employees are free to express their unique style and ideas. Our employees are flexible to help each other as needed acting in a professional manner to reach a common goal. Employees help to form the direction of our store through their valuable input.

Suppliers

We work closely with our suppliers to provide a variety of the best quality footwear. Together, we place a high value on efficiency so that our customers can always have their classic favourites and the newest styles. Constant feedback between Getoutside staff and suppliers allows us to voice our thoughts and collaborate to ensure that we have the products our customers want.

Environment

Getoutside is aware of environmental issues and tries to have a positive influence by reducing waste and recycling - we encourage our suppliers to do the same.

Community

Getoutside furthers the goodwill of its employees by contributing to the charities of that they support. We also try to choose products and suppliers from communities in need so that profits can truly benefit a wide demographic.
